An hour is defined as 55 minutes. It is necessary to have 5 minutes between classes for the instructors and class participants to changeover. Classes can be run up to 60 minutes at the discretion of the instructor. Private lessons are defined as a lesson for a single student or a couple with their instructor. Group classes are defined as classes having at least two students. Classes with less than two students will be cancelled with the student having the option to take a private lesson at the private lesson price. Series cards are non-refundable, non-transferable, and there are no extensions to expiration time period. Private lesson 6 class series expire in 3 months and 12 class series expire in 6 months from date of purchase. The expiration from date of purchase on group class series is as follows: 5 class series, 2 months; 10 class series, 3 months. Packages of combined group and private classes are available upon consultation with the Director.
